

Righting Wrongs against Minorities: the Role of Human Rights Institutions

An informal lunchtime seminar with

Emeritus Professor Gillian Triggs
President, Australian Human Rights Commission

Ms. Puja Kapai
Director of CCPL

Dr. Marco Wan
Co-convener of Emerging Strategic Research Theme (ESRT)

Friday 26th June 2015, 1:00pm – 2:00pm
11th Floor Conference Room, Cheng Yu Tung Tower,
The University of Hong Kong

Prior to the delivery of her formal lecture at 5:00pm on Freedom of Speech and the Asia Pacific: Does Charlie Hebdo Go Too Far?, Professor Triggs has agreed to share her insights and experiences from Australia and the region in this invitation-only lunchtime event.

Opening the session will be Ms. Puja Kapai and Dr. Marco Wan, speaking on the subject of sexual and ethnic minorities in Hong Kong and the challenges that they face in equal protection under the law in a range of spheres.

Emeritus Professor Gillian Triggs is the President of the Australian Human Rights Commission, taking up her appointment by the Commonwealth Attorney-General in 2012. She was Dean of the Faculty of Law and Challis Professor of International Law at the University of Sydney from 2007-12 and Director of the British Institute of International and Comparative Law from 2005-7. She is a former Barrister with Seven Wentworth Chambers and a Governor of the College of Law.
