

CONFERENCE ON SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN'S BEST INTERESTS:

TRANSLATING POLICIES INTO LOCAL PRACTICES - COMBATING VIOLENCE AGAINST CHILDREN

Date:

8 September 2018,
Saturday

Time:

9:00am – 5:30pm
(Registration: 8:30am)

Venue:

2/F, Large Moot Court,
Cheng Yu Tung Tower,
Centennial Campus,
The University of Hong Kong

Target Audience:

Multi-sector professionals and practitioners working with children and related issues.

Fee

General: HKD 120 (with complimentary lunch)
Student: Free

Enquiries

shelwh@hku.hk (Shelley Leung)

Currently applying for the Law Society of Hong Kong's Continuing Professional Development (CPD) accreditation points.

Objectives:

- Launch Child Rights Impact Assessment Framework ("the CRIA Framework")
- Assess state of knowledge and skills required for the implementation of the CRIA Framework
- Develop interdisciplinary communities of practice to effectively incorporate international best practices in safeguarding children's rights and interests

International Speakers:

Mikiko Otani
Member of the UN Committee
on the Rights of the Child

Anne-Claire Blok
Human Rights Advisor,
Plan International
United Nations Office in Geneva

Raša Sekulović
Head of Child Protection and Partnerships,
Plan International
Asia Regional Office

Organisers:

Strategic partner:

Sign up HERE:

More details: <https://www.law.hku.hk/ccpl/childrens-rights-impact-conference/>