

HKU CCPL SEMINAR

“One Country, Two Systems” in the Hong Kong SAR in the National Security Law era

11 December 2023 (Monday) 5:15pm - 6:45pm
Academic Conference Room, 11/F, Cheng Yu Tung Tower, HKU

There has been considerable negative reaction in the Western world to the introduction of the National Security Law in Hong Kong in 2020. Some critics even suggested that “One country, two systems” has come to an end in Hong Kong. In this seminar, the speakers will discuss the past, present and future of “One country, two systems” in Hong Kong with reference to their latest research. Professor Meyer will talk about his book project on the impact of the National Security Law and China's latest Hong Kong policy on Hong Kong as an international financial centre. Professors Albert Chen and Po Jen Yap will present some aspects of their recently published book entitled The Constitutional System of the Hong Kong SAR: A Contextual Analysis (Hart Publishing, 2023).

DAVID R. MEYER

ALBERT CHEN

PO JEN YAP

ABOUT THE SPEAKERS:

Professor David R. Meyer is Emertius Professor of Sociology & Urban Studies at Brown University, and currently teaches in Olin Business School, Washington University. His books include Hong Kong as a Global Metropolis (Cambridge University Press, 2000).

Professor Albert Chen and Professor Po Jen Yap are professors of constitutional law at the Faculty of Law, The University of Hong Kong. Their co-authored book, The Constitutional System of the Hong Kong SAR: A Contextual Analysis (Bloomsbury/Hart Publishing) was published in September 2023.

The seminar will be chaired by Professor Hualing Fu, Warren Chan Professor in Human Rights and Responsibilities and Dean of the Faculty of Law, The University of Hong Kong.

Prior registration is required for this in-person event: <https://bit.ly/43bWMI>
For inquiries, please contact Phoenix To at ccpl@hku.hk.