

The Journalism and Media Studies Centre, Centre for Comparative and Public Law and The Society of Publishers in Asia invite you to a public talk...

THE LAW AND JOURNALISM IN A POST-WIKILEAKS ERA

A CONVERSATION WITH
MARK STEPHENS, LAWYER
FOR JULIAN ASSANGE

June 9, 2011 (Thursday)

10 - 11:30 am

Convocation Room, Main Building, The University of Hong Kong

This talk will be conducted in English.

About the Talk:

This event offers an opportunity to speak directly with the lawyer representing one of the most controversial individuals of our time, Julian Assange, founder and editor-in-chief of Wikileaks. What has been the impact on transparency, foreign policy and journalism in the wake of Wikileaks' release of hundreds of thousands of secret government documents?

About the Speaker:

Mark Stephens is a London-based lawyer specialising in media law and human rights who has represented The Wall Street Journal, The Washington Post and other media and journalists in many high-profile cases in the United Kingdom, Australia, Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia and in the European Court of Human Rights.

JM
SC
HKU

Journalism and Media Studies Centre
The University of Hong Kong
香港大學新聞及傳媒研究中心
<http://jmsc.hku.hk/>

